BAPTIST CHURCH

2014

Wedding Policy

Congratulations on your decision to seek God's blessing on your upcoming marriage. We, as members of Meadow Brook Baptist Church, are pleased that you have elected to have a church wedding. Our desire for you is a happy and blessed Christian marriage.

This policy was adopted by our church in an effort to effect good communications between the church and the wedding party and to assure a special worship experience for all who may wish to attend your wedding.

Attached are the wedding policy and forms required for weddings at Meadow Brook Baptist Church. We ask you to read them carefully and to complete any necessary forms or agreements before any public announcement of your wedding plans are made.

General Wedding Policies

A church wedding, by the very nature of the fact that it is solemnized in the church's place of corporate worship, led by a minister, and accorded the church's approval, is a sacred and important service of worship. The bonding of a man and women together is an occasion that should be approached with seriousness and joy by those involved as participants and by those friends and family members who make up the congregation.

“For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” Ephesians 5:31

We believe that God sanctions only the union in marriage of a man to a woman. Due to our belief in the biblical teachings about marriage, same sex couples will not be married in any facilities on or any properties owned by the church.

Procedures:

- A. Familiarize yourself with our Procedures, Reservation Policies, Rehearsal and Service Policies, Music Wedding Policies, Responsibilities of Required Service Personnel, Fee Structure for Weddings and Forms.
- B. Be sure to arrange with your pastor and/or pastoral staff to officiate your wedding. If the pastor or pastoral staff member is not a member of Meadow Brook Baptist Church the applicant must submit a copy of their ordination with the application.
- C. After completing the application make an appointment with the Administrative Pastor and Church Wedding Coordinator to turn in your application and review the wedding policy. The wedding will be tentatively added to the Church Calendar at this time pending coordination with the staff.
- D. Couples married at Meadow Brook Baptist Church must undergo premarital counseling. The pastor, or a person designated by him, must approve the program of counseling. The counseling must be completed one month prior to the wedding. If the premarital counseling is done by someone other than a member of the Meadow Brook Baptist Church

Staff, please have the Premarital Counseling Certificate (see form in the back of this booklet) completed and return to the Wedding Coordinator 30 day prior to wedding.

- E. If the couple fails to have premarital counseling and/or return the Premarital Counseling Certificate, the wedding will be canceled.
- F. Our Senior Pastor, as the divinely chosen leader, shall have the final say about matters in the wedding program (music, vows to be taken and form of ceremony).
- G. You must use the church wedding coordinator, sound technician and custodian (for their duties, see responsibilities of required service personnel). Services of an organist, pianist and /or vocalist(s) may be scheduled through the wedding coordinator.

Reservation Policies

- A. The Worship Center is available to members, their children and non-members for weddings; however, non-members will be charged a fee.
- B. The Worship Center may be used for weddings at most times other than Sundays and Wednesdays and providing such use does not conflict in any way with previously scheduled services or meetings at the church. During special events, the Worship Center may be decorated for these events and these decorations cannot be removed or changed in any way. Weddings cannot be scheduled in the month of December, during Easter (the weekend before through Easter weekend), and the weekends before and after Vacation Bible School (usually in June).
- C. The Fellowship Hall/Arch Room is available on a limited basis for receptions and rehearsal dinners. Please check with the church concerning this. You may use your caterer.
- D. Only one wedding can be scheduled per day.
- E. Reservations for the church cannot be made more than twelve months prior to the wedding date. Reservation dates cannot be held longer than one week after you are notified of the approval of your date without the reservation/deposit fee (see Fee Structure for Weddings)

- F. Both members and non-members must complete, sign, and return to the church office the “Application for Use of the Meadow Brook Baptist Church Facilities for Weddings” and the reservation/deposit fee. After approval by the pastoral staff, the date can be confirmed.

Rehearsal and Service Policies

- A. Behavior at rehearsals, rehearsal dinners, weddings and receptions within the church shall be in accord with Christian decorum as interpreted by the church. Smoking, alcoholic beverages, or any illegal drug of any kind will not be tolerated on any part of the church property.
- B. Floral and decorative plans MUST be approved by the church wedding coordinator. This should be done before ordering to prevent costly mistakes. Below are some guidelines, but these may not cover all situations. If part of your plan is not addressed, talk with the wedding coordinator.
- The only chairs in the choir loft that may be removed from the choir loft are those in the top row and an additional custodial fee will be charged. (see fee schedule) Any platform adjustment of chairs, instruments, sound equipment, etc. must be coordinated with the Worship Pastor or other staff member designated by the Worship Pastor.
  - All candles used within the church must be non-drip and must be placed in a container so that if drips do occur, they are contained. An example would be hurricanes for pillar candles. Battery operated candle flames may be placed in indentions of regular pillar candles or battery operated candles may be used. No candles may be placed on the baptistery ledge.
  - Metal candles holders, metal pew markers and other paraphernalia to be used over the ends of/standing beside the pews is strictly forbidden. Flowers to mark pews may be attached to the pews with ribbon.
  - No adhesives (including glue or clay), nails or any other attachment that would mar may be used on pews, the modesty railing, the walls or any other surface in or out of the church. Use only existing nails on doors for wreaths, bows, banners, etc.

- Only silk or paper petals may be dropped by a flower girl. No fresh petals may be dropped.
- No aisle runner may be used.
- Bubbles or shakers may be used outside of the church facility when the couple leaves. The use of rice, confetti (candy and paper), birdseed and sparklers are not allowed on the church property.
- The church will be honored and will gladly use flowers from the wedding for Sunday worship; however the church office will need notification well in advance so that regular arrangements can be cancelled.
- The florist should remove all equipment immediately after the wedding unless some equipment is being utilized in the flower arrangements for Sunday morning. Any equipment used on Sunday morning must be removed by Monday after the wedding. The church will not be responsible for any equipment left after the Monday after the wedding and the equipment will be disposed of as necessary.

C. We welcome both photographers and videographers and encourage the use of both. We also ask that you advise both of the following:

- Be respectful of the ceremony and be as unobtrusive as possible.
- Photographers may not go past the front row of pews during the wedding except to photograph the bride coming down the aisle.
- We encourage you to have all photographs made before the wedding. Any photographs in the Worship Center, foyer, and on the grounds must be completed one hour prior to the wedding time. Photos may be made in the bride's and groom's areas during the hour before the wedding.

- There is a niche in the rear of the Worship Center near the center entrance for the videographer.
  - A videographer may stand in the choir loft to video the wedding as long as the camera is on a tripod. Only the camera may be moved during the wedding. The videographer must remain still. Also, this videographer must wear black clothes.
- D. Please bring all wedding attire the day of the wedding. The church assumes no responsibility for items placed in the church before, during or left after the wedding. Also, please have all wedding party members' possessions removed from the bride's and groom's rooms BEFORE the wedding as these rooms will be unattended during the wedding.
- E. Failure to comply with general or music wedding policies will result in cancellation of your wedding or forfeiture of damage deposit.

Music Wedding Policies

- A. All music must be appropriate for worship. All wedding vocal music, pre-service music, instrumental music, processional and recessional music must be approved by the Worship Pastor one month prior to the stated wedding date. This is to ensure that all selected music is appropriate for the wedding ceremony. It is the responsibility of the bride or a member of the marriage family to ensure this has been done. At least one consultation meeting for selecting/approval of wedding music is required with the Worship Pastor who is available by appointment.
- B. The use of pre-recorded music and accompaniment tracts may only be used when approved by the Worship Pastor.
- C. The church organist may perform at wedding ceremonies in which the organ will be used. The use of a guest organist must be approved by the Worship Pastor. If the organ is not needed in your wedding ceremony, a church pianist may be used. The same fee schedule would apply ($200).
- D. Immediate questions concerning music should be directed to the Worship Pastor for further clarification.
